

About Snagov...

Snagov is an area in idyllic Romanian countryside about 30 kms away from the Capital City, Bucharest gifted with immense natural beauty owing to a protected lake and forest in the region. The tranquil Lake and Deep Oak Woods which are the hallmark of the region are an idyllic haven for those who love nature. There are also ancient monasteries in the area rich with cultural heritage and rustic folklore – Most famous amongst them being the Vlad Tepes Monastery believed to house the tomb of the famously infamous Dracula.

Snagov Foundation ...

Snagov Foundation ( is a registered Not for Profit Organization) set-up formally in December 2007 with the primary aim to champion the development of the Snagov Area. Snagov Foundation activities are directed in 4 main areas called Commissions (Each Commission has its own team, projects and budgets):
